

DAN
TUNTLAND
TREASURER

Daniel J. Tuntland is the principle of DJT Real Estate Company, a commercial real estate company. He started his career in 1995 and specializes in real estate investment, development and brokerage.

Dan was born in Reno and is a lifelong resident of Nevada. He graduated from Bishop Gorman High School, attended UNR and graduated from UNLV.

Dan is a member of NAIOP, a prestigious national and local commercial real estate development association and serves on many committees. He has served on the board of Nevada Succeeds, a non-profit education organization since 2014. Dan is a trustee for the UNLV Foundation and serves on the real estate committee. Additionally he serves as a member of the Counsel of Advisors for the Lied Institute of Real Estate Studies at UNLV. He has been on the board of Keystone since 2004.